What Is Dedication

Dedication is the devotion shown by Lee and Ruth Scott in the short time they were at Pikeville College. The Scotts donated much time to the college and were loved by all who met them. Because of their dedication they received the 1982 HONARY ALUMNI AWARD.

Dr. and Mrs. Scott came to Pikeville from Granville, Ohio. Lee Scott, Visiting Professor of Philosophy and Religion, was forced to retire at the age 65 and showed great desire to continue teaching. When the retirement age was changed to 70 Lee began to search for a new position. President Hall heard of his availability and approached him about a teaching position at Pikeville College. He came here in the Fall of 1979 and his wife, Ruth Visiting Professor of Psychology, followed him in the Spring 1981. Upon arriving to Pikeville they began to love the mountains. They viewed the mountains as a sense of freedom and respected the mountains and Pikeville College for what they stood for.

The Scotts were with us for a short time, but while they were here their contributions to Pikeville College were endless. By the donation of their time to continue teaching they have enriched the lives of the people at Pikeville College. The most unfortunate part of the Scotts leaving is that not all students had the opportunity to know them personally.

Pikeville College is nestled among the Cumberland Mountains, part of the Appalachian chain, in the Big Sandy River Valley. The picturesque Eastern Kentucky area in which the town of Pikeville is situated is accessible by way of federal highways 23, 119, and 460. Pikeville is served by Grayhound and Trailways bus lines.

Jenny Wiley State Park and Breaks Interstate Parks are both within a thirty-five mile radius of the college. Opportunities for camping, swimming, hiking horse-back riding, as well as motel accommodations, are available at both locations.

Pikeville College is a four-year, independent, co-educational college affiliated with the United Presbyterian Church. Founded in 1889 as a result of the work of Drs. W.C. Condit, Samuel B. Alderson, and James P. Hendricks, the institution opened under the name of Pikeville Collegiate Institute with the Reverend David Blyth as principal and also pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Pikeville.

In 1909 the Articles of Incorporation were amended. The name was changed to Pikeville College and the school was empowered by the Commonwealth of Kentucky to confer degrees.

P I K E

V I L L E

Until 1955 the institution operated as a junior college. Upper level courses were added in 1955-56, within the awarding of the first baccalaureate degrees in May, 1957. In 1961, Pikeville College was admitted to membership as a four-year college in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, having had membership in that association as a junior college since 1931.

Traditionally a liberal arts institution with an expressed purpose of laying a sound foundation for broad cultural awareness, Pikeville College has gradually added career oriented courses and programs to its offerings. A department of education has been maintained for more than thirty years, and more recently degrees have been made available in technology areas. Preparation for entry into such professional school as medicine, law theology and engineering has also been available at Pikeville College for a number of years.

The governance of Pikeville College rests with the Board of Trustees of which Mr. Charles Chrisman is currently chairman. Dr. Jackson O. Hall was appointed president of the college in March, 1975.

Happy Halloween!

The Halloween Dance was honored by the presence of the Great Pumpkin and Cat Woman better known to some as Lynn Perry & Tracie Estep.

Mr. Dracula made an appearance when he heard the music call, but it was soon discovered to be only John Norris in disguise.

Is the darling Dracula? Of course not. Only Toby Spradlin in costume going to join in the fun the others were having in the Student Lounge.

Halloween parties have a track for getting to some people. This appears to be what has happened to Chrissy Newman or was it just his way of enjoying Halloween.

Pam Scott has Mark Johnson in handcuffs but she doesn't really believe that he is guilty.

Tammy Newsome and Jennifer Ratliff stand quietly by, but what are they really thinking.

Charlese, Jackie, and Ruth take time out to rest during the festivities or are they really trying to figure out what is really going on.

Does this mean the Honeymoon is over? Not when you are enjoying yourself as much as Jan and Harvey Tackett did at the big dance.

Pam Wolford, Linda Rose, and Rhonda Stanley seem to be prepared for all the unknown events of this Bewitching Night and anxiously await the unforeseen excitement.

Could this be the bride of Frankenstein or is Mike May trying to show Jamie how things are celebrated at Pikeville College.

There were no ghosts at this party.

Melissa Johnson, Karen Burke, Jerri Ward, and Jane Wallace: Was it Halloween or do these girls always look this way?

PC Students

Who Won?

The Latest In

Jerri Ward, Teresa "Chop" Ray, and Jane Wallace realize that the Punk style can be as creative as you want it to be.

Diana Davis wonders if Punk is where it's at.

Bonnie Lawson wants to know if this is her "Blind" date!

Selena Brown seems to be getting into it!

Punk Rock

It appears that meditation is what set the mood for Valerie Hale and her date.

Becky Martin proves that Punk is all in how you move.

Blues Brother Bobby Baker is on a mission to "Punk Out" with "Cool" Tracie Estep.

P u n k R o c k

On November 17, P.C. students "punked out" with the Stray Cats and other great sounds of the new wave. There was a tremendous turnout of punkers at the first Punk Party sponsored by S.G.A. It was awesome, totally awesome! The headbands, wild Devo glasses, long sweatshirts, tight fitting mini skirts, and wild colored tights were a part of the punk scene.

Left, the Outing Club, lead by J.D. Christle celebrated Founders Week by lighting up the campus in style. The Outing Club worked hard to prepare several illuminating lights which were distributed over the entire campus. After dark on Founders Day the candles were lit and so was Pikeville College. Melissa Johnson was shown enjoying the canoe races after all the work of organizing the event.

Founders Day Activities

Rick Ryver, Jeff Hershner, Steve Priode, and Craig Coleman unload their canoe for the big race down the Big Sandy.

The talent show consisted of many talented students. Tied for first place was Summer Breeze and The Trio. 2nd place went to Pam Scott. Pictured Shelly Riffe, John Norris, Valerie Hale, Jimmy Goble, Pam Scott, Steve Johnson, Carol Click

Highlights Of

Founders' Day Activities required participation from many students. Bonnie Lawson resorted to the nervous habit of biting her finger nails before canoing down stream in the annual canoe race. Lynn Perry and Lesia Sizemore decided they would only be spectators at this sporting event. Looks like George Diamond really got into a race of his own as he ran the 99 and defeated them with record breaking time.

Founders Day

Outing Club Sponsor David Sutherland answers questions about canoeing from amateur canoers before attempting the unexpected. Sandra and Jamie wonder if Mike and Troy will make it back without getting soaked! The illusion of lights on the walkway of the Science Building showed the beautiful side of Founder's Day Activities.

Canoing Down The Big Sandy

Rick Ryver and Rick Garbrielson seem to know what they are doing!

Did these members of the Baseball team, Priode, Hershner, Ryver, and Gabrielson get all washed up?

Troy Rutherford and Mike May smooth out the rough spots.

Getting wet never hurt anyone as Mike and Troy work their way upstream to get ahead in the race.

Being crowned 1983 Homecoming Queen enhanced her memories of P.C. for she had been a member of the court her previous two years.

'82 Homecoming Queen' Leads Parade

1982 Homecoming Queen, Tammy Vance Childers, led the 1983 Homecoming Parade, Saturday, December 14, 1982-83, through downtown Pikeville. The five senior queen candidates and the underclassman attendants made a dazzling appearance as they each rode on "classy corvettes". Three area bands also participated in the parade with first place being awarded to the Pikeville Marching Band.

Senior: Sandy Bowling (Bottom Right) waves to the crowd as she is driven through the parade by escort: Eddie Kelly.

The Corvettes brightened the parade. Brenda Hamilton is escorted by Robert Newsome, in a white Corvette. Jerri Ward rode the black Corvette driven by Brian Turner. The glittered signs added a special touch to the cars the girls were riding.

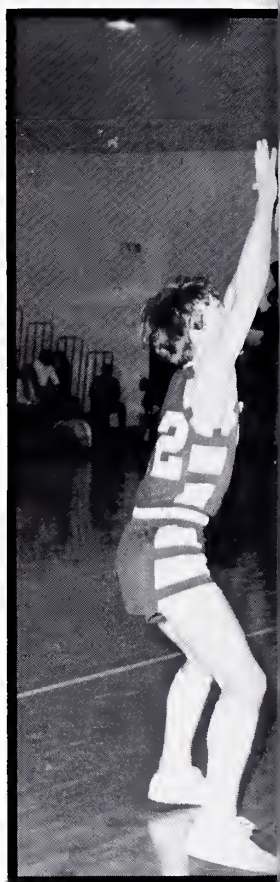

Girls Win In Overtime

The Homecoming game was victorious for the Bears as they beat the Cumberland Indians in overtime. Trena Hensley (Top Left) seems to be in a tough spot, but fast breaks are always possible. It was under the instructions of Coach West (Top Center) that the girls were victorious. Chop (Bottom Left) seemed to have no trouble in putting up her shot. Libby runs with the ball as she comes out of her last Homecoming game with a win for P.C. All the girls had their contributions to make to the game such as Becky Martin (Top Right) and Lynn Perry (Bottom Right).

Boys Fight No-

Ervin was up for two, put that wasn't enough to put the Bears ahead. Mike looks for an open hand to pass the ball to. Tom refuses to hand over the ball which is what the other player seems to be wanting. (Bottom) Hoskins seems to be having a little trouble putting up his shot.

Greg puts up a shot much to the despair of the other player. Even Coach Lyons strong words of encouragement were not enough to pull the Bears a win over the Cumberland Indians.

Win Battle

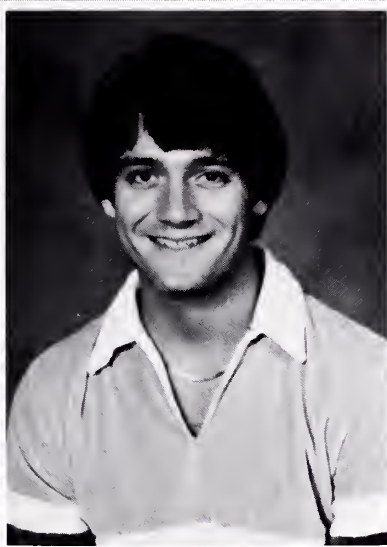

Gary Anderson and Bill Slone (Top Left) took time out of their busy schedule to attend the Annual Homecoming Dance. They also attended many other S.G.A. activities which gained them the respect of many students. (Top Left) Faith Wolford found it easier to serve herself.

(Bottom Left) Mel, Mary Ann, Karen, Janet and Thrash must have found something interesting to talk about. Mark and Harvey finally get to relax after all the work is finished and the dance begins.

Representing the JUNIOR CLASS for the 1982-83 school year were, KENNETH ROBERTS: PRESIDENT, PATSY ROBERTS: VICE PRESIDENT, TERRY SPEARS: TREASURER, SHERYL CABLE: SECRETARY. Not pictured was NICKY WRIGHT: S.G.A. REPRESENTATIVE.

Sweetheart Queen And

Sweetheart King

On February 14th at Graham Station Jane Wallace was crowned the 1983 Sweetheart Queen and Craig Coleman the '83' Sweetheart King. The decision was made by an election of all the students attending the dance. The station was decorated in the traditional red hearts. Pictured (Center Top) Judy Hale and John Werth seem to be enjoying the quieter aspects of the dance while (Bottom Center) many other students seem to be enjoying the action occurring on the dance floor.

Remember

Vicki McClellan

Vicki McClellan Dorm Mother of Condit Hall, was suddenly taken from all the people that loved her and from her many friends here at the College. Vicki was a teacher at Harold Elementary and was on her way home when her life was suddenly taken in an automobile accident.

She was unusual not for the details of her life, but for the subtle effect she had on those around her, she was a bright spot on the Pikeville College Campus. Vicki had a way of reaching inside us and making our lives better just by knowing her. In her duties as Dorm Director she found time to be a friend to the girls. She would listen to their troubles, endure their jokes, and share their gossip. She had a great sense of humor and loved to laugh.

Vicki's death was not tragic, because her life was not tragic. It was victorious, if only because she left us a legacy of thoughtful goodness.

Vicki was such a special person, that even though our sadness may fade away, our love for Vicki and the memories we have of her will live forever in our hearts.

Me Forever

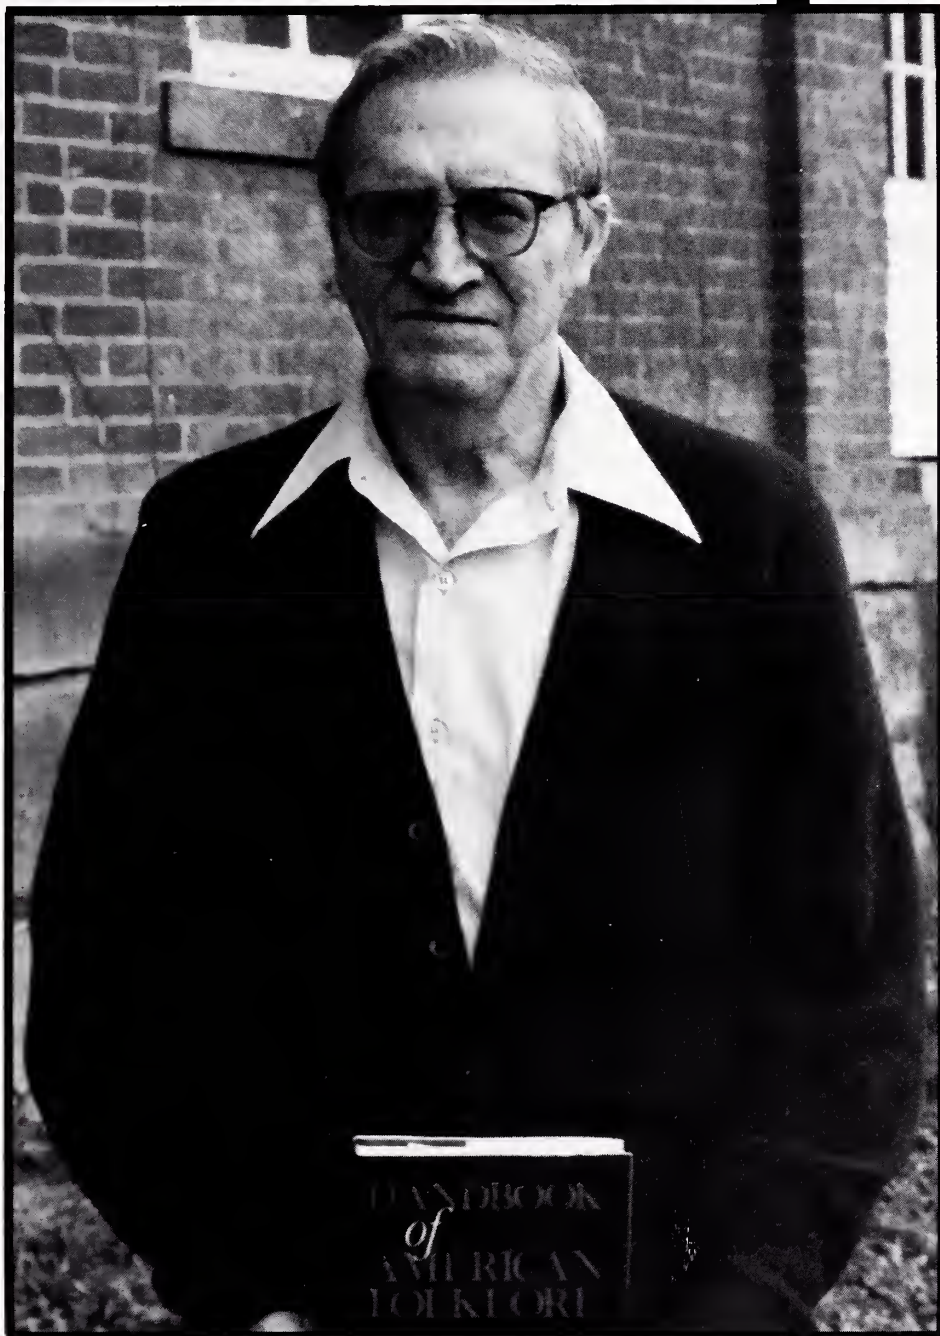

Dr. Leonard Roberts, scholar, folklorist, humanist, researcher, educator, storyteller, humorist, editor and publisher was also taken from the college in a tragic automobile accident.

Dr. Roberts had come to Pikeville College in 1968. He said he had returned because of his love of the mountains and the down-to-earth people of Eastern Kentucky. He spent his life learning about the area and the people he loved. His stories about the people have bought him fame nationally and internationally.

Dr. Roberts always got involved in the life at the college. At Hillbilly Days in mid April he spent many hours on the street selling Pikeville College Press books. Then on April 14 he led the square dance at the Annual Dance Recital.

Dr. Roberts had a way of teaching the people of this area more about themselves than they had ever realized. He taught them to be proud of who they were.

Dr. Roberts face will be missed next year, but through the books he has written and stories he has told he will live forever.

President Jackson O. Hall

Dr. Jackson O. Hall came to Pikeville College in 1975. He attended Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire and received his doctorate from Cornell University in 1967. The past year has been a testing time for President Hall and Pikeville College. Dr. Hall has seen the College through many misfortunate budget cuts, but he is confident that the college will arise a stronger institution because of the faith of the people that surround the institution.

Dr. Stephen Fritz: Vice-President for Academic Affairs is pictured above with his Office Staff; Carol Derry; Secretary to the Vice-President, Fairy Coleman: Secretary to the Registrar, Vicki Brown: Registrar.

Gary Anderson

Gary Anderson: Director of Student Services. Gary has been a person greatly admired by all the students because of the interest he has shown in them. He has been very active in all the S.G.A. sponsored activities as well as keeping his office door open to the students at all times. He has been a great help to the yearbook staff in working out our budget and we would like to say thanks.

Bear Victory Craft Hits Last Second Shot

Sr. Mike May had a tremendous night while scoring 29 pts. and Tom Craft hit a basket on the free throw line with two seconds remaining to give the Bears a victory over Rio Grande.

The game was pretty much in Rio Grande's hands in the first half with the score board indicating 41-36 at halftime. After leading as many as 10 pts. in the second half, the Bears made a comeback with 13:12 showing on the clock and down 51-43. The fighting Bears tied the game in less than 3 minutes of play. The game went into overtime and May put Pikeville ahead 66-65. The two teams then traded baskets for two minutes until Tom Craft sunk the winning basket with two seconds left.

Pikeville out rebounded the Redmen 30-27. Ervin Smith brought down 12 while May contributed 9 for the Bears. Scoring for the Bears: Leader Mike May with 29 pts. In double figures were Rodney Rowe 16, and Ervin Smith 11. Tom Craft and Greg Newsome also led the victory with 9 and 7 points.

Bears Fall To Cumberland In Second Round of K.I.A.C.

Fun Is Being With A Friend

Fun is being with a friend at joyful events that will some day be memories of the past. (Top) Janie Reynolds, Senior, enjoys just listening to the music with someone special; while Laura Hall says, "Lets remember tonight with a photograph (Center Left). Johnene seems interested in something that Tivis had to say, but Philip Smith only finds it amusing. Tonight's the night for special friends, a friendship like ours. (L to R) John Norris, Melanie Dedden, Tracie Estep, Jane Wallace, Jerri Ward, Mary Ann Stanley, and Eugene Sisco.

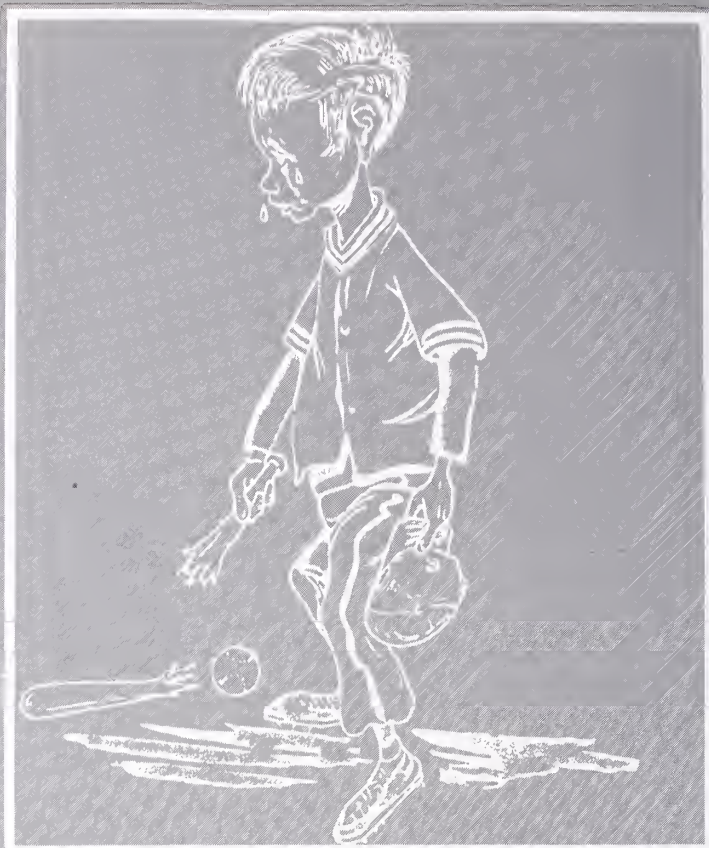

The people around us are what makes the event such as Spring Formal so special to us. Pictured (Left) Lisa Hall's smile reflects the good time she and her date were having.

Baseball Team Strikes Out

Three strikes and you're out, at least that's what happened to the Baseball team. The unfortunate budget cuts brought an end to the excitement of Spring Baseball as well as bringing an end to the dreams many of the players were trying to fulfill. Baseball, an enjoyable sport that has been a part of the Pikeville College Campus for many years, will only be a memory of the past. So, WE SALUTE ALL THE PLAYERS OF THE '83 TEAM!

Rick Ryver — JR. PITCHER

Philpsburg, Pa. Rick had a live fast ball an excellent curve and was a good slider.

RICK GABERIELSON — FR. THIRD BASE

Osceola Mills, Pa. Rick had good contact hits, excellent hands, and above avg. arm.

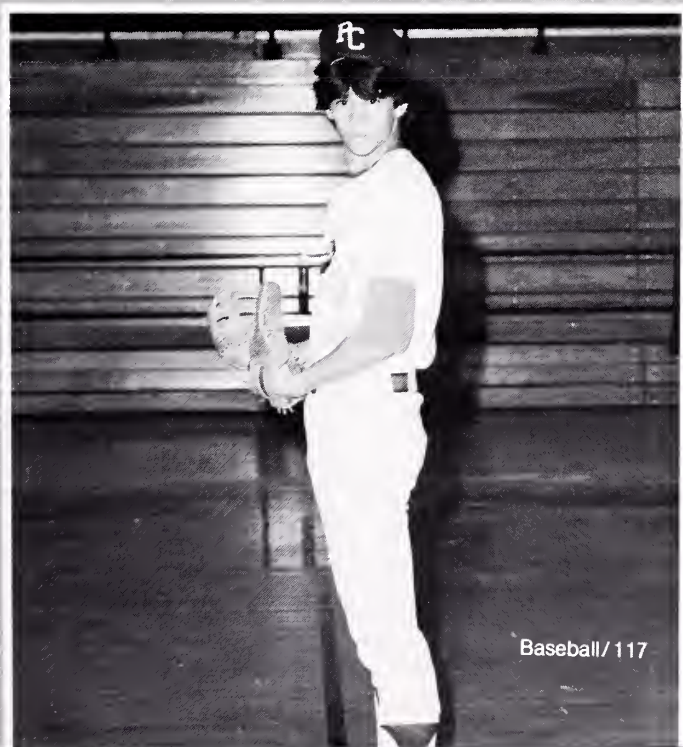

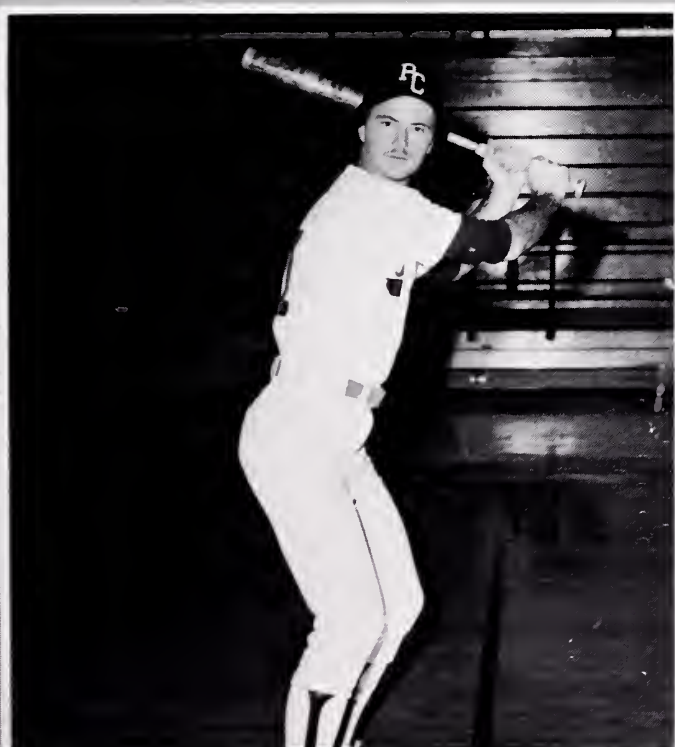

The Freshmen Trio relaxes while waiting for the game. They are Quentin Wilson, Terry Wright, and Brian Baldrige. They came to Pikeville College to play Baseball, an opportunity that is now non-existent.

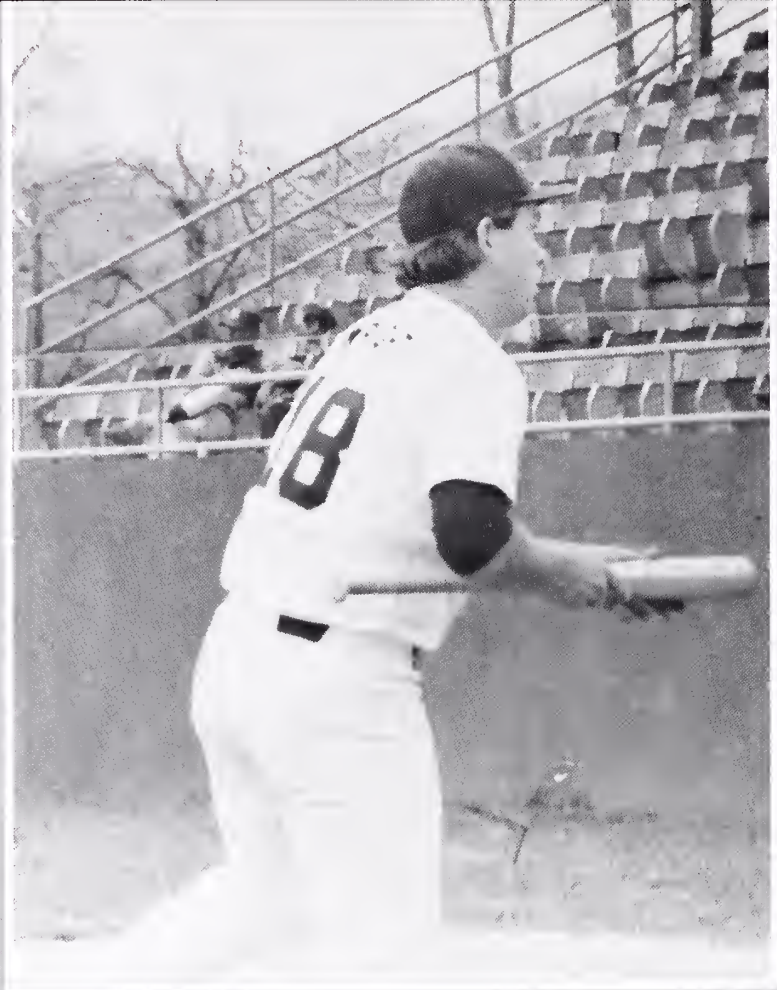

JEFF HERSHNER — JR. INFIELD, PITCHER

West Chester, OH Jeff had consistent glove on defense, and excellent speed.

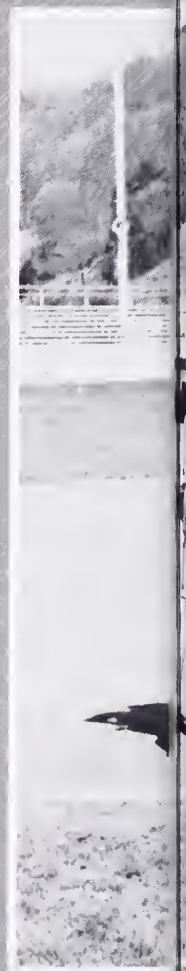

QUENTIN WILSON — FR. PITCHER

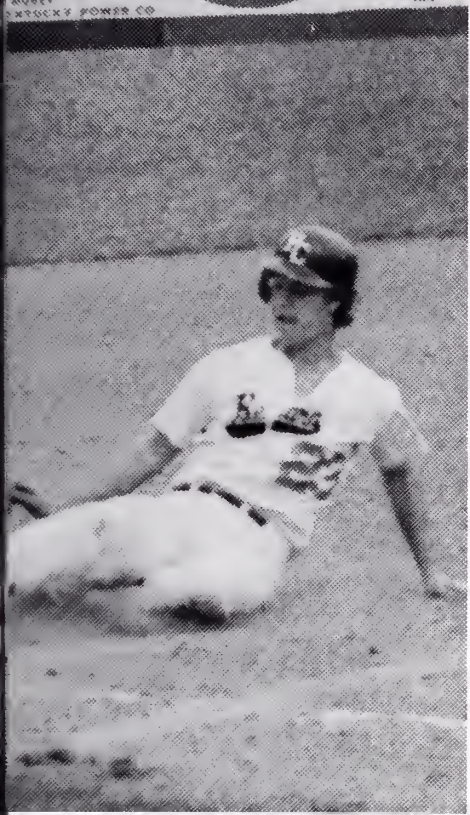

Goode, Va. Quentin possessed a super curve ball and a good moving fast ball

BAT BOY? Of course not, or at least not for the Pikeville College Bears Baseball team. Tammy Roberts a Freshman from Virgie served as BAT GIRL for the bears team. Tammy added an extra touch to the team just by being there. Jackie Morrison (not pictured) also served as an assistant to the team.

Tim Owens — So.
Outfielder
Elkhorn City, Ky.
Tim had good foot speed and a strong arm

Craig Coleman — Fr. Shortstop
Pikeville, Ky. Craig was a smooth player with a good range, a quick bat, and a potential power stroke.

Brian Baldridge — Fr. Pitcher
Paintsville, Ky. Brian had above average fast balls and a good curve ball.

There seems to be some question over who will get the ball, but one thing for sure Greg Grace doesn't intend on getting involved. Will it be a hit, strike, or foul ball? Only Rick Gabrielson knows.

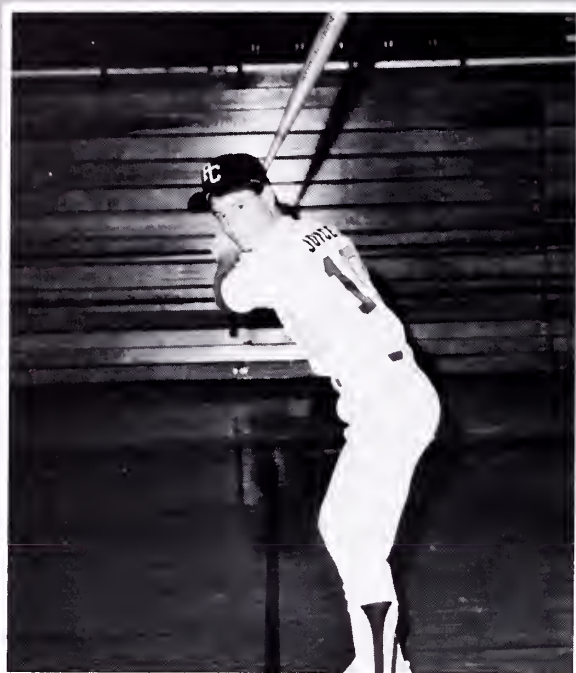

Robert Staggs, Junior Infield.
Pikeville, KY Robert has shown power at bat, has a good glove on defense and a better than average speed on the bases.

Terry Wright, Freshman: Pitcher, First Base.
Pikeville, KY. He has above average velocity as a pitcher and hits with power.

Basil Armstrong: Head Baseball Coach.
Basil come to Pikeville College in the fall of 1981 and has worked hard to develop the team over the past two years.

Andrew Joyce, Freshman
Catcher
Pikeville, KY. Andrew was a good receiver, has quick release on throws, and is a consistant hitter.

Danny Castle, Freshman Infield, Pitcher
Louisa, KY.
Danny was a consistant hitter
and could play any position.

Greg Grace, Sophomore Pitcher, Outfield Paintsville, KY. Greg possessed a lot of power and is a most promising pitcher.

The coach seems to be very pleased as he stands back with sheer confidence and watches the game. Could it possibly have been a hit such as Andrew Joyce's that made the coach's day?

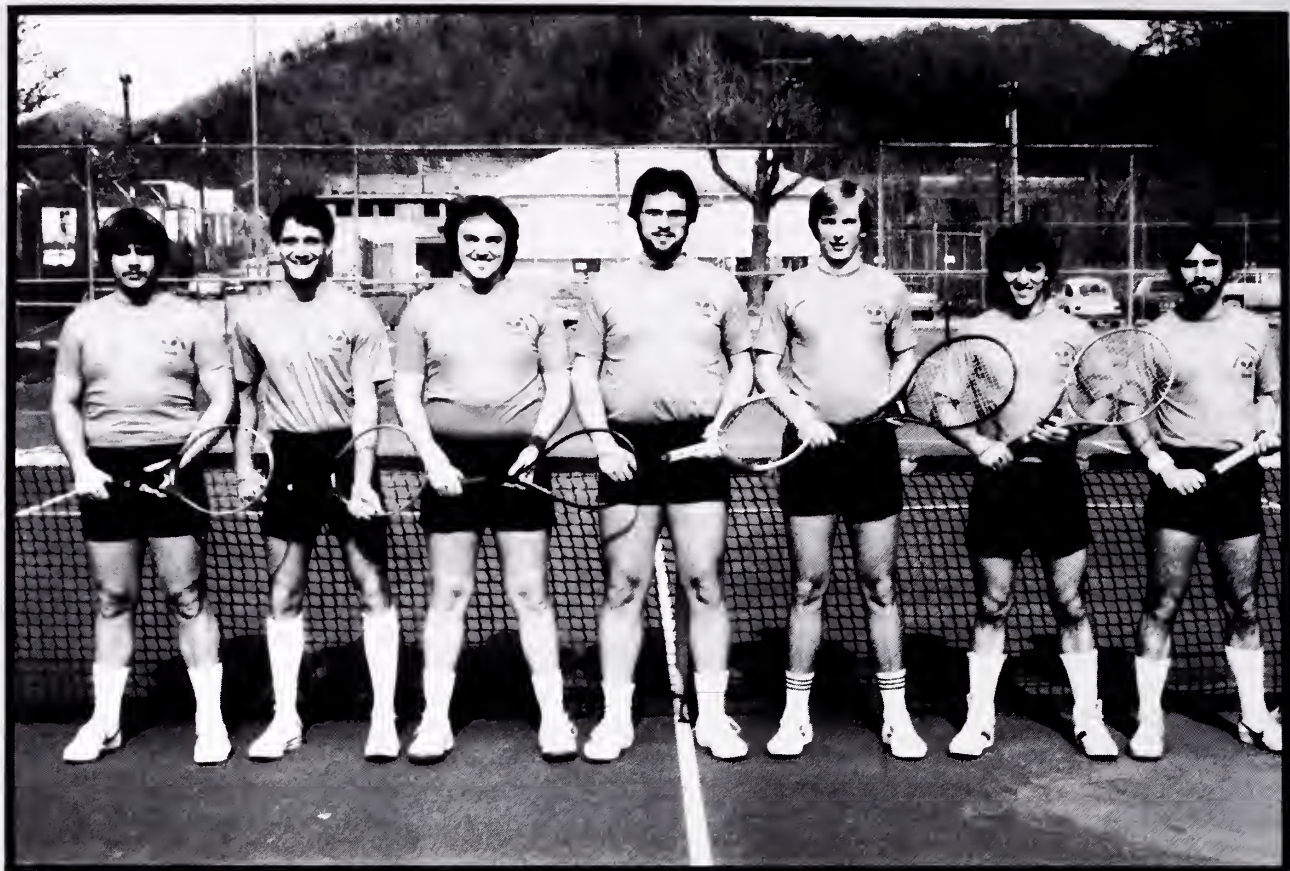

Steve Priode, Junior Outfielder, Pitcher. Steve has an excellent arm for long throws from right field.

Nelson Scott, Freshman Infield. Pikeville, KY. Nelson is an unselfish player, has an excellent arm, and is learning the Bear-Way of baseball.

The 1982-1983 S.G.A. Officers and Senators worked hard to make it an enjoyable year for everyone. They are: Libby Lockhart, Harvey Tackett, Mark Johnson, Bobby Edmonds, Pam Scott, Eugene Sisco, Teresa Ray, Jerri Ward, Nicky Wright, Bobby Baker, Jane Wallace, and Melissa Johnson. They should be commended on the job they have done and the long hours they have spent arranging activities to make the time spent on the college campus more exciting.

S.G.A. Chooses New Leaders

A big event of the year for the Student Government Association is the election of the "New Student Government President". As time draws near the candidates start their heated campaigns. They plaster the campus with posters reading, "Vote for _____, the best person for the job", and with signs and fliers telling what a great president they would be. Pictured above is Eugene Sisco holding one of his campaign signs as he presents his campaign promises to John Fox and Kathy Gilliam. Could that have been what won him the election?

Student Government ends the year with a dinner in honor of the new Student Government President and Vice-President. Summer is finally here and it's time for everyone to start having fun. The campus spot most enjoyed by the students in the summer is the swimming pool. Some go there to enjoy a nice relaxing swim while others are there to work on their tans. So, it's grab a towel and some suntan lotion and off to the pool. The pool is a place where friends get together to enjoy themselves. It is also where students and faculty can have the opportunity to get to know each other outside the classroom.

Maratha L. Collins Crowns "Our" Ky. Queen

After the surprised Miss Phillips was named queen, she made her way back through the audience to the apex of the laurel cove. She donned a cape with the train held by several young boys, and carried a bouquet of the traditional pink and white mount-laurel. She knelt beside the reflecting pool to accept her crown from Lt. Governor Martha Layne Collins.

(Pictured Below) Following the coronation the queen's escort, Kenneth "Coonie" Roberts of Virgie, was thrown in the reflecting pool, a tradition always enjoyed by the audience. Pictured with Coonie was the Mayor of Pineville after he, too, was thrown into the reflecting pool.

Pictured left are the many friends and Alumni of Pikeville College who were there to offer their support to Ann. Many thanks to Greg Yarus for the excellent pictures he had taken and made available for our use.

Appalachian Literature Class Visits Author James Still

(above) James Still, a descendant of pioneers who settled early in the southern mountains, grew up in the Appalachian foothills of northern Alabama. James Still moved to the Eastern Kentucky region in 1932.

Member of the Appalachian Lit. class listens with amazement to the stories that James Still has to tell. Class members were: Baretta Casey, Carol Ganim, Rudy Sutherland, Charles Carty, Jim Frasure, and Debbie Stiltner.

James Gill built around his rock "River of Earth" an ancient log house on a small farm between Weyburn, Canada and Des Moines, British Columbia. The house consists of 2 rooms: the main room containing the bed and the kitchen.

Carol Gill is standing with James Gill in front of the book section that she had made in the house.

1982-83 Highlander Editor Sheryl Cable

A true friend lasts forever and what better way to remember them than with a photograph. Putting together a yearbook takes many hours of dedicated work as well as a desire to produce something the students can be proud of. This book was produced for no one individual but for everyone that they might recall the joyful events of '83' at Pikeville College. The yearbook staff dedicates this book to you, the students, faculty, and staff, with hopes that you will enjoy it.

A FRIEND IS...
SOMEONE WHO KNOWS ALL ABOUT YOU, BUT...
LIKES YOU
ANYWAY-

The production of this book would not have been possible without the help of many dedicated people. A special thanks goes to Tom Brush, our Josten's Representative, Marian Yarus and Brenda Hicks, our advisors, and Susan Huffman for the many contributions they made. A new editor always needs advice so I would like to thank Brenda Hamilton and Jerri Ward, Advising Editors, for their continued help and support until the book was finished. Thanks to Sherry May for the long hours she spent working on this book and Devena McCarty, Donna Chaney, and Carol Derry for all the typing they've done. Without pictures what is a yearbook? Thanks to all our Olan Mills photographers, especially Jack Tester for the many hour he spent taking pictures through the rain of homecoming and the heat of graduation. Thanks to everyone who has helped in any way, especially staff members.
